¡Felicitaciones! Congratulations! If you are on this website it is because you are planning going to college or are already in college, which means you already took several steps towards your success! The following are resources available from several different sources which will help you plan your next steps:

- College Board - College Search [2] - this web site will help you find the college that is right for you.
- Latinos in College [3] - This is the place to find out everything from who's offering scholarships, to help if you're the first in your family to go to college, from trips abroad to internships and jobs.
