- Log in [1] to post comments

ASPIRA has long believed that the ability to read, write, and communicate is the foundation for success in life. It is the key to individual freedom and, as such, is critical to America's democracy and free enterprise system. That is why ASPIRA has been singularly committed to boosting literacy levels in Latino communities for four decades. The ASPIRA supports adult, child, and family literacy, as well as computer literacy programs nationwide.
