The APEX program consists of ten workshops that are available in both Spanish and English. The goal of the APEX program is to increase the involvement of Latino parents in their children's education as well as to enhance the effectiveness of those that become involved in supporting, monitoring, and advocating for their children's education.

Parents who have used the curriculum report that they have had great success in utilizing the suggestions in the APEX manual. From creating a quiet study space at home to becoming local school council members, APEX program participants have been able to significantly increase their involvement in their

Summaries of the APEX Workshop series are available on this site, under the heading "manuals." If you would like to find out how you can purchase the APEX manual, or would like to start this program in your community please contact us.
